THREE BILLY GOATS GRUFF

Happy Ever After endings are a tradition at Bits N Pieces Puppet Theatre. They help preserve our history of folk and fairy tales. The simple direct stories appeal to children in every age. Each child finds their dreams and wishes in their imagination. Some tumble down a rabbit's hole, climb a beanstalk, take a walk to Grandma's house or cross a bridge with a troll underneath it. Classic fairy tales, folk tales and ancient fables instruct children about the world around them. Puppets still enchant the children of today not just Once Upon a Time.

Our new production of 'Three Billy Goats Gruff' is available for school field trips and public performances. Our residency activities often include workshops, demonstrations and exhibition.

Our Arts-In-Education activities for the classroom include simple puppet-making and performance using creative dramatic techniques for class enjoyment.
